

HAMBURGER EYES PHOTO MAGAZINE

THE CONTINUING STORY OF LIFE ON EARTH

When opening Hamburger Eyes Photo Magazine you enter a pictorial history of both the unseen and iconic moments of everyday life. It is organized in such a way that it has become many things to many people. As a photo journal, we share our travels and experiences. As a photo diary, we share our accomplishments and heartaches. And as a photo album, we share our families and friends and reach people on a level they have been familiar with since their first birthday party. Our publication is currently composed of black + white photography. We have contributions from photographers of all levels. Inspired by the traditions that began with National Geographic and Life Magazine, we hope to revitalize the sensation of photography as a craft as well as a tool to record and document.

Hamburger Eyes Photo Magazine is based in San Francisco and published by Burgerworld Media. Hamburger Eyes is off-set printed in black and white on glossy stock, perfect bound with a cardstock cover, holding 100 pages at a run of 3000 copies. Hamburger Eyes is carried in shops, stores, libraries, galleries, and museums across the entire planet.

Recently, Hamburger Eyes has upped its commitment to photography and photographers. We have joined with Colorarts Photographics and expanded into a full-service, professionally maintained darkroom & digital facility now known as The Photo Epicenter. This 2000 square foot headquarters also houses a gallery, a retail area, and naturally lit areas for workshops and classes.
